

FCC Net Neutrality Comment

April 8, 2018

Dear FCC:

Below is my comment concerning NET NEUTRALITY

PRESERVE NET NEUTRALITY AND TITLE 2. I believe liberty without regulation, requires non-discrimination principles such as:

1. Consumers are entitled to access the lawful Internet content of their choice;
2. Consumers are entitled to run applications and services of their choice, subject to the needs of law enforcement;
3. Consumers are entitled to connect their choice of legal devices that do not harm the network; and
4. Consumers are entitled to competition among network providers, application and service providers, and content providers.

Net Neutrality will be our second Declaration for Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. The internet can be a life changing tool for good by providing access and opportunity in education, communication, research and commerce to all Americans. All Americans deserve a level playing fields that is not tilted by special and/or moneyed interest. Do we want to preserve the unequal society we find ourselves or provide a means for real access to opportunity for all Americans?

Lest we forget why we started this grand experiment is governance?

Sincerely,

James Goodman
